Recommended Resources

Please Note:

1. Although I am recommending these resources, I can't accept responsibility for any purchases made, business conducted or relationships initiated with anyone listed here.

2. While I am an affiliate of some of the resources that follow, please know that most of the recommendations are for products and services I have personally used and feel good about recommending to you. For the few that I haven't used myself, they come highly recommended by colleagues I trust.

3. Also, because URLs sometimes change without notice... if you come across a link here that is no longer accurate, I'd appreciate if you'd just send us an email at info@ShesGotClients.com to let us know. Thank you!
